Please Recite after Holy Communion
Priestly/Religious Vocations

Father, in your plan for our salvation you provide shepherds for your people. Fill your Church with the spirit of courage and love. Raise up worthy ministers for your altars and ardent but gentle servants of the gospel

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

Unless you accept God's kingdom in the simplicity of a child, you'll never get in

There are all kinds of ways to divide up the people of the world. We can divide them in half by gender or into a handful of races or colours. Or we can divide them into countries, ethnic groups, or languages. We can divide them by class, sexual orientation, political party, or aesthetic sensibility if we prefer. We can slice up the world according to economics: rich and poor works well in most places. There are the happy and the unhappy; this generation or that; saints or sinners. Or we can just use the simple compartments "us" and "them," and add whoever we want to each box.

We can, and do, divide the world's people into lots of little categories, each of which contains an implicit judgment on who they are. Jesus represents the opposite impulse. He doesn't dismiss children as irrelevant. He doesn't champion a man's rights over a woman's in marriage. He doesn't put religious people in one corner, and sinners in another. Jesus presents love as the binding force which holds everyone together, rich and poor, men and women, slave and free. Can we change our way of thinking, from dividing to uniting?

Who are the "us" and "them" in your community, and how can you resist this attitude?

Therese Martin was the last of nine children born to Zélie and Louis Martin in France in 1873. Therese matured very early due to bereavement and illness in her family and was therefore permitted to enter the Carmelite Monastery of Lisieux at the age of 15.

Her loving trust in God, true simplicity and humility were lived out faithfully and these she taught to the novices by word and example. She did very simply the ordinary tasks of each day with great love.

St. Therese's "Little Way" is one of total trust and self-abandonment to the Merciful Love of God. In this way, and through her repeated act of oblation, she lived intensely the Paschal Mystery in her short life.

Married life is a process of growth, in which each spouse is God's means of helping the other to mature. Change, improvement, the flowering of the good qualities present in each person – all these are possible. Each marriage is a kind of "salvation history", which from fragile beginnings – thanks to God's gift and a creative and generous response on our part – grows over time into something precious and enduring.
