FOOD FOR THOUGHT: Lean On Me

I have a picture clipped long ago from the newspaper, of Chicago Bulls player Scottie Pippen holding up Michael Jordan as they walk to the bench for a time-out. It was a game in which Jordan, suffering from stomach flu, could barely stand during the time-outs. But with the help of his teammates, Jordan played his heart out during the game - scoring some 50 points.

I bring this photo and put it on display when I give talks to men's groups. It conveys a message seen too infrequently in our society - that men can count on one another with their needs. The message is usually met at first with nervous laughter. Men often feel shame about needing, let alone accepting, help from another man. But after they let down their guard, the image of one man leaning on another for support becomes an emblem of pride. In this case there was nothing for Jordan to be ashamed about. So the support he was accepting from his teammate seemed heroic and selfless.

This week's gospel urges us to be persistent in the practice of our faith. Who are the people who support you? Whom do you support?

UnPlanned the movie!

UnPlanned is the inspiring true story of one woman's journey of transformation. Abby Johnson was the youngest Planned Parenthood clinic directors in America and a vehement supporter of a woman's right to choose. Until the day she saw something that changed everything. UnPlanned is the most important movie you'll ever see on the most controversial issue of our time - abortion. No matter which side of the fence you're on, no one will leave this film unmoved by Abby's journey. To find a screening near you visit fli.org.nz
